Quinta do Pêgo gains international award

Hotel Rural Quinta do Pêgo is the national winner of “Best of Wine Tourism 2011 - Great Wine Capitals” in the accommodation category. “The Great Wine Capitals” (GWC) is a network of nine major global cities, which share a key economic and cultural asset: their internationally renowned wine regions. It exists to encourage travel, education and business exchanges between the internationally renowned cities of Bilbao/Rioja, Bordeaux, Cape Town, Christchurch/New Zealand, Florence, Mainz/Rheinhessen, Mendoza, Porto and San Francisco/Napa Valley.

Impressive guest reviews

In the spring 2009, after a total renovation the vineyard Quinta do Pêgo in the Douro valley in Portugal opened in a totally new shape with hotel. Quinta do Pêgo is one of the most beautiful quintas in the Douro valley - and Hotel Rural Quinta do Pêgo is certainly worth a visit according to the guests who have visited the hotel so far. As per 27th July 2010 the hotel has achieved an impressive guest feedback score of 9.2 (scale 0-10) at booking.com. Furthermore, Hotel Rural Quinta do Pêgo is the hotel with the highest score amongst all the good 4 and 5 stars hotels in the Douro Valley - and actually, it is the only hotel in the area with a guest feedback score above 9. Considering the fact that the hotel is only in its second season, this is an extremely impressive score.

Gold wines

Furthermore, the wines from Quinta do Pêgo have received a lot of prestigious medals and reviews. Quinta do Pêgo produces port, red table wine and olive oil. In 2010 the wines from Quinta do Pêgo have received a lot of medals at prestigious international wine competitions. For example Quinta do Pêgo 2005 Late Bottled Vintage has gained 5 out of 5 stars at www.vinavisen.dk, 5 out of 6 stars in Morgenavisen Jyllands-Posten, Gold in International Wine Guide 2010, Gold at Mundus Vini 2010 in Germany, Gold at Wine Masters Challenge 2010 in Portugal and Silver at Concours Mondial de Bruxelles 2010.

A guest review says...

“An absolutely fabulous setting in vineyards overlooking the Douro. Modern and very well appointed hotel with super friendly, efficient and helpful staff. Great infinity pool - again with those great views. Informative wine tasting as part of the experience and very good fixed-menu dining. ,,
